

Weston Museum Volunteer Role Description

Role Title:	Rusty Club Volunteer Under the direction of Learning & Events Officer
Role Summary:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To be part of a team leading monthly sessions for the museum's kids club, 'Rusty Club', which is an affiliated Young Archaeologist Club
Role Description:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To assist with the creation of resources for club sessions. To facilitate learning activities within sessions and support visiting external session leaders. To assist with the planning and facilitating of occasional external trips to local places of historical interest. To assist with the planning, marketing, evaluation and development of Rusty Club. Sessions usually take place in the morning on the first Saturday of each month, but development and administration tasks can take place on other days.
Requirements:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Enthusiastic approach. Good team skills. Good customer skills. Confident in engaging with children. A general interest in (but not necessarily an in depth knowledge of) history or archaeology.
What's In It For You:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Gain experience of working in a learning environment. Gain experience of working with children and young people. Development of communication skills and team work. Ongoing role specific training and induction via the museum or via the Young Archaeologist Club network.
Why We Want You:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To help provide the best possible experience for children and young people at the museum. To help promote the museum's activities.
Notes:	*This role may be subject to a DBS check
For more information, contact:	Volunteer Coordinator, Lisa.clemons@wsm-tc.gov.uk 01934621028